

INTRODUCTION

With over $9 billion in housing design, master planned communities and construction projects, the 30 year career of John Packowski has spanned the country and provided over 35,000 families the choice of fine living...by design. Working with over 100 clients in every housing type from custom to luxury lofts, John has the unique background of design disciplines from architectural, to landscape and interior design. Understanding markets and with forward eyes on technology, John offers perspective and skills far from the ordinary. From entry level, to exclusive estates and high density, Clients enjoy the local and world perspectives employed in each of Johns' designs. From purchasing to finance, to scheduling in research and development to charting the latest trends, his knowledge continues to grow and results in projects that succeed, win awards and create lasting partnerships.
